1001 NEW STORYTELLERS FUND

Introduction

The 1001 New Storytellers Fund is a project in support of new and emerging storytellers taking courses with Storytelling Toronto. This award was established through the generosity of and in partnership with 1001 Friday Nights of Storytelling. This fund is intended to subsidize the partial cost (75%) of a student's enrollment in ONE of the following three courses:

- Summer Intensive;
- Storytelling I: First Steps Into the Art of Storytelling; OR
- Storytelling II: Next Steps Into the Art of Storytelling

Payment of the remainder of the course's fee (25%) will be the responsibility of the student.

Conditions of the Award

- For impartiality, all applicant names and personal information will be removed before the application is sent to the Awards Committee; names and personal information will be kept confidential by the Storytelling Toronto Operations Manager.
- The recipients are selected through a juried process. The jury is anonymous.
- Membership and/or support of Storytelling Toronto is not required.
- Applications must be received by Storytelling Toronto by August 31st 2019.
- Recipients of the award will be notified by mid-September.

Storytelling Toronto recognizes and embraces the value that diversity brings to the organization. We are committed to inclusive, barrier-free selection processes. Candidates from diverse backgrounds, and of all abilities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Application Process

- Fill out the applicant information at the top of this page.
- Answer all questions on page 2. If you need more writing space, attach a separate document (PDF preferred).
- Save the document(s) in PDF (if possible) with file name as YOUR NAME.
- Send your completed application to the Operations Manager at admin@storytellingtoronto.org
